CREMONA'S HISTORIC NOUGAT FESTIVAL IS BACK IN ITS ORIGINAL FORM

On calendar from 13th to 21st November 2021 in Cremona

Cremona, 4th May 2021- SGP Great Events is glad to announce the new dates for “Festa del Torrone”. From 13th to Sunday 21st November 2021 the city of Torrazzo will be covered in nougat.

This edition goes back to its original 9-day version and will be inaugurated on 13th November Cremona's Saint Patron, Saint Omobono's day who is the protector of merchants and tailors and it will bring awaited novelties and events which have become a tradition such as the giant nougat constructions and the Golden Nougat which have always been part of the celebration.

Festa del Torrone's most representative events will not be missing among which the historical revival of the wedding between Bianca Maria Visconti and Francesco Sforza, the long awaited final show characterised by an evocative setting with choreographies and spectacular scenographic effects which will be set up in Comune Square, but this is not all, during the event theme workshops for adults and children will be organised.

Among the guaranteed events that have always been a part of the Nougat Festival there will be giant nougat constructions and the traditional prizes such as the Bontà Prize created for awarding a prize to those who dedicated their time and their life to helping others and the prestigious Torrone d'oro prize which will be awarded to those who represent Cremona and its territory in Italy and in the world.

It will be an occasion not to be missed for all those who have a sweet tooth and those who are keen on tradition to be part of the event again and the city of Cremona will be given an important occasion to celebrate its typical dessert. A wide market area with nougat producers from all the nation who will sell and will let the visitors taste several types of the dessert that is the town's symbol is under organisation.

This event is promoted by the Town of Cremona and by the Chamber of Commerce of Cremona, it is organised under the patronage of Regione Lombardia and numbers as sponsors: Spertari, Rivoltini Delicacies, Vergani and Cremona Po Shopping Centre.
